All of us go through registration. Students contend with the frustration of closed classes and vanishing advisors. The faculty strives to provide enough cards and advice to please everyone. Registration is a hassle but everyone manages to survive.

Everyone attends classes at least part of the time. Some go to learn, some go to visit, some go to teach, and some go to sleep.

After registration and classes it's PARTY TIME, and everyone does their own thing. Some go crazy, while some take it slow and easy, but everyone has a good time.

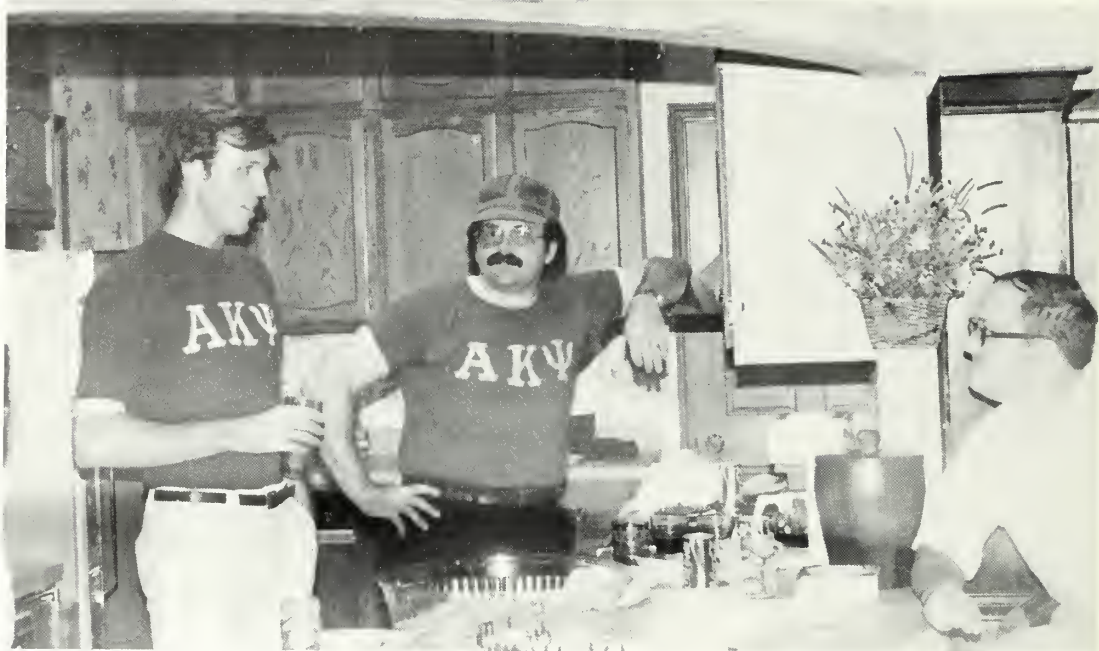

Some try to study in the dorm, others give up and go to the library, and still others like the great outdoors.

*Some of us are joiners.
Some join committees, some join clubs, some join religious groups and some run for political office.*

become Greek.*

Some of us like to attend sporting events like football, basketball, volleyball, etc., and show support for our teams.

Others like to participate in different recreational activities. Some require physical exertion, while others are more relaxing.

Everyone likes to socialize. Some spend their time in the Wigwam, some have late-night gab sessions in the dorms, and others take advantage of nice weather. Communication is a major part of a student's life.

Everyone eats but the state of their pocketbook dictates where the students eat. A majority of the dorm students eat in the cafeteria. The luckier ones with more money cook in the dorm or eat out at one of the many restaurants and fast-food joints along the strip.

Although there are dorms, A-State is mainly a commuter campus. Traffic jams and crowded parking lots highlight this fact.

*For relaxation
some students
go to the movies, bowl, skate, or attend the dances on campus.*

Some of us, while earning a degree, are married and raising a family.

Some of us work.

Despite the hard work and hassle most of us graduate. It is a day that all of us remember for one reason or another. And even though most graduates move on they remain part of the Arkansas State University family and forever a member of the Indian Tribe.

Bucketeers Make Campus Appearance

Some of us attended the extravaganza put on by Meadowlark Lemon and his Bucketeers in Indian Fieldhouse Feb. 4. The event was sponsored by the Union Board.

During the spring of '80 various offices connected with student activities moved into Chickasaw. The offices of Student Affairs, Admissions and Records, Career Planning and Placement, Counseling, Financial Aid, and Housing are now in one building, but students still have to go to the Admin. Building to pay fees. Construction on campus included the addition of more post office boxes to accommodate the influx of students, a new dishwashing system for the cafeteria, an elevator in Wilson for handicapped students, and a new Communications-Education building which is slated to be finished in 1982. As the money slowly becomes available ASU will be able to finish the facelift begun and maybe repair the vacancies in the faculty.

Pep Rallies

The Arkansas State Cheerleaders sponsored pep rallies for all home and conference football games this year. The rallies were held on the pep stage behind the Reng Center and were full of yells skits, cheers, and enthusiasm. The two organizations who won spirit awards for the year were the TKE's and the ZTA's.

HOMECOMING 1980

Homecoming came as usual to ASU along with various activities during the week of the event. The Greeks, along with various other groups, built displays, glasses were sold by the SGA, Homecoming mums were sold by AOPi, the Homecoming dance was sponsored by the UB and the 1980 Homecoming Court was selected.

Rain hampered a few of the week's activities including the completion of Homecoming displays. The finished displays were judged, however, and the winners selected. First place in the mechanical division was won by the TKEs and Alpha Gams, second place was awarded to the KAs and Chi Os. First place in the stationary division went to the Pikes and KDs, with second place going to Lambda Chis and Phi Mus.

Our Costumed

The traditional ASU Indian Family and newly added Spirit Chicken donned their costumes to boost spirit for the Indian Uprising. The 1980-81 Indian Family attends home football games and consists of the princess Kelly Jones of Little Rock and the brave Rex Davis of Wynne. The Spirit Chicken, an added feature for ASU basketball, was Michael Sykes of Jonesboro.

Spirit Boosters

ASU CHEERLEADERS

The ASU cheerleaders help to raise enthusiasm on campus by leading pep rallies and cheers for the various teams on campus. They also kindle rivalry between different groups to encourage participation in pep rally activities. They are in charge of awarding the spirit stick during the year to the Greek groups that show the most school spirit. They cheer at both football and basketball games. This year's cheerleading squad is pictured below. (First row, left to right) Connie Davis of Hardy, Robbie Metcalf of Jonesboro, Patty Frazier of North Little Rock, Barry Adams of Paragould, Danita Bowman of Osceola, Bill Pyland of Paragould; (second row) Gary Milks of Sherwood, Julie Montgomery of Stuttgart, Tamela Tenpenny of Little Rock and Jay Woods of Wynne.

BSA Sponsors Mr. Ebony Contest

DRIVE

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity sponsors a blood drive every semester to collect blood for the Red Cross. The 1980 fall semester blood drive was very successful and 407 units of blood were collected to make this the highest total ever. Every fraternity and sorority were represented in the blood drive and many others on campus contributed also. The Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity had the best percentage of the Greek groups giving blood.

Drama Department

Presents Plays

The ASU drama department put on three plays during the 1980-81 season. "Absurd Person Singular" was a comedy-drama with a British flavor that tended to go over the heads of the audience at times, "She Stoops to Conquer" was a comedy set in the eighteenth century, and "Buried Child" was a spine chilling mystery. All three performances were well received by the audiences.

Thornton Is ASU's 7th President

President Ray Thornton and wife, Betty, are pictured standing in front of the president's home. Thornton was named the new president to succeed Carl Whillock. Thornton is well qualified to help ASU meet the challenges of the 1980's. He received a bachelor's degree from Yale and a law degree from the University of Arkansas. He is a former Congressman and also served as Attorney General. Thornton has been involved in higher education, serving as executive director of the Joint Education Consortium of Quachita Baptist University and Henderson State University.

Sig Ep Sponsors Tea For New President

President Ray Thornton was welcomed to the ASU campus by the men of Sigma Phi Epsilon. A tea was given in honor of the new president September 7, 1980, in the Sig Ep suite.

1980 MISS ASU

Cathy Drake of Hot Springs was crowned as the new 1980 Miss ASU during the yearly pageant sponsored by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. Pictured to the right is Bernee Jackson of Osceola, first runner-up, Miss Drake, and Mona Brewer of Leachville, second runner-up. Monique Anderson sang a medley of songs to win the talent competition.

Watson Is Named Miss Black ASU

Phyllis Watson (right) of North Little Rock was chosen Miss Black ASU Feb. 14 in the BSA-sponsored beauty pageant which kicked off Black History Week on campus. Jeannie Hunt of Little Rock and Belinda Edwards of Warren were runners-up.

Union Board

The UB Concert Committee sponsors several concerts a year on campus. Waylon Jennings was brought to ASU in April of 1980 and played to a capacity crowd in the Indian Fieldhouse. In January of 1981, Hank Williams, Jr. was in concert with Juice Newton as the pre-concert performer, and was also considered an overall success.

Some Of Us Just Live Here

Some of us are lifetime residents of ASU. They are attracted by the high ratio of nuts! They are mainly seen on warm, sunny days, spending their time sitting in the sun and visiting friends. They brighten up the students' day with their antics and lend a touch of relief to an otherwise dull day.

Black History Week

Black History Week was held on the ASU campus Feb. 14-21. Phyllis Watson of North Little Rock was crowned Miss Black ASU to kick off the week. Programs during the week included a panel discussion on "The Struggling Eighties," a movie "A Raisin in the Sun," a lecture by Dr. Luther Williams, dean of arts and sciences at Washington University at St. Louis, an art display, a dance featuring the soul band "The Sounds of Little Rock" and a formal ball. Black History Week was sponsored by The Black Student Association and the Cultural Enrichment Committee of the Union Board.

Dr. Williams Is Featured Speaker

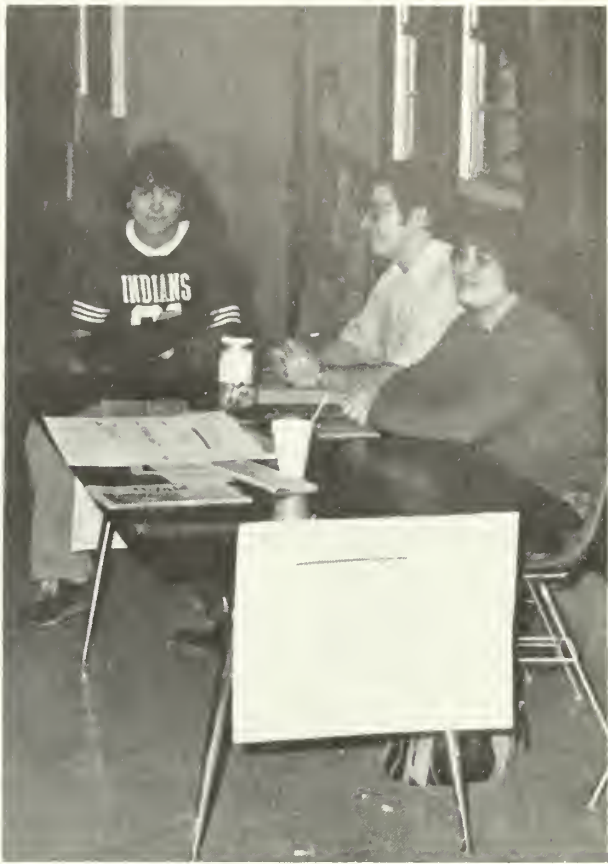

Dr. Luther Williams (this page, top left), dean of arts and sciences at Washington University in St. Louis, was the featured speaker during Black History Week at ASU. A panel discussion on "The Struggling Eighties," was held Feb. 17 with Henry Droughter (seated at left, opposite page), Equal Employment Opportunity Commission representative and Roland Carpenter (seated right) associate director of federal programs for the state education department, members of the panel. Reggie Smith of Little Rock introduced panel members. Seated directly above is Jimmy Johnson, president of the Black Student Association, which co-sponsored Black History Week with the Cultural Enrichment Committee of the Union Board.

Stephens Inc. Donates Art Collection

An art collection valued at $80,150 was presented to the ASU Foundation by the Little Rock investment firm of Stephens Inc. during the fall. The collection consists of works by 12 contemporary American artists and includes 82 major works of lithographs, etchings, screen prints, steel sculptures and one acrylic collage painting. The collection was presented to the public in the Fine Arts Center Gallery during the month of February.

Cardinals retain SLC track title

Al Joyner garnered 20 individual points in the Southland Conference Track Championships at Ruston, La., but his effort only helped the Tribe escape the cellar pointwise in the meet, as the Lamar Cardinals took the title once again.

Joyner finished second in the triple jump, first in the 110-yard high hurdles and fifth in the long jump for his points, but ASU collected only 64 all afternoon.

Lamar totalled 133 to win it, with Texas-Arlington right on their heels with 110. Louisiana Tech finished third with 107, McNeese State took fourth with 89, ASU had 64, and the University of Southwestern Louisiana brought up the rear with 55 points.

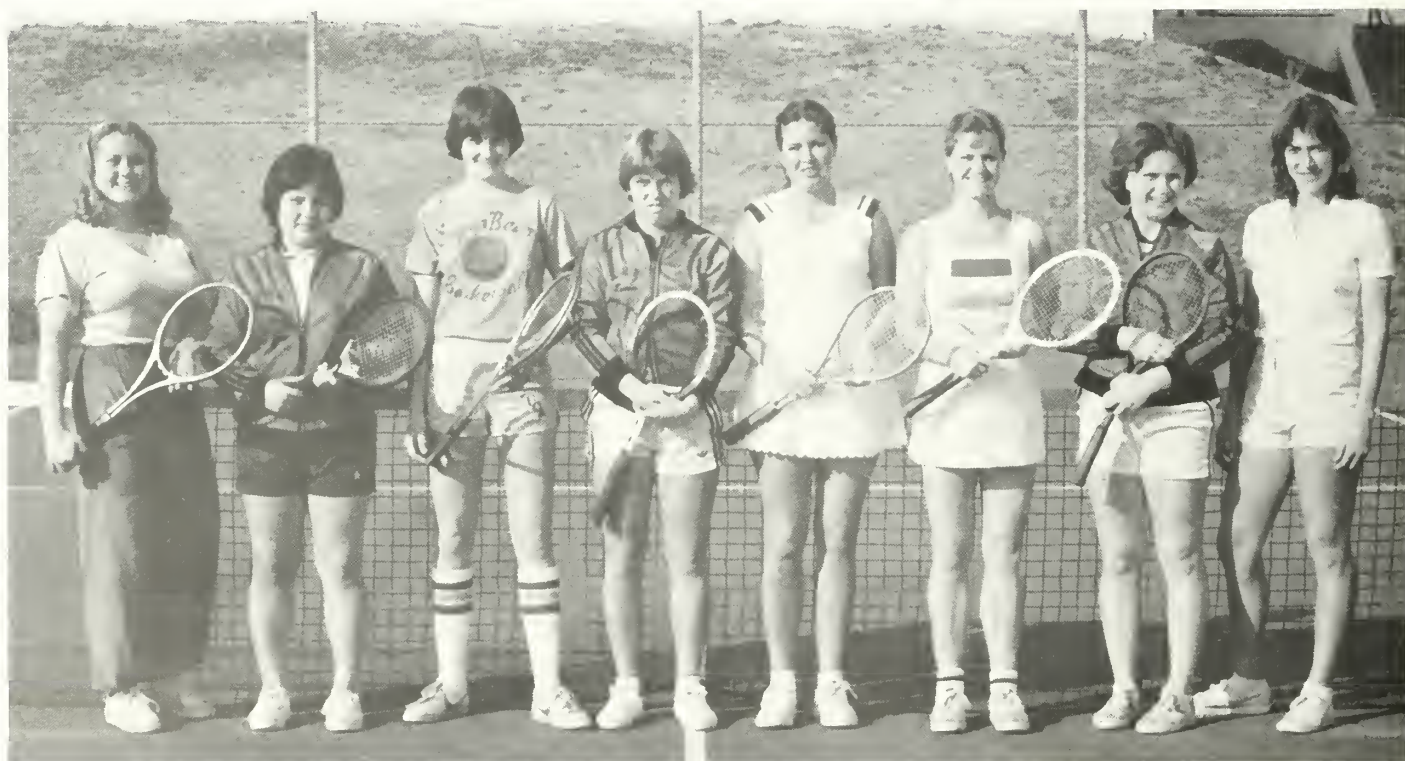

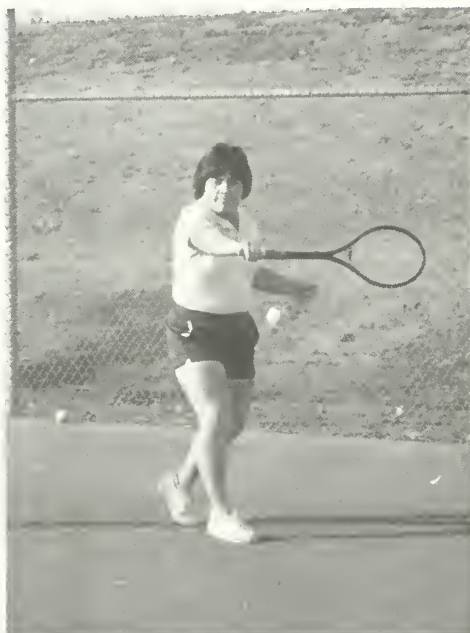

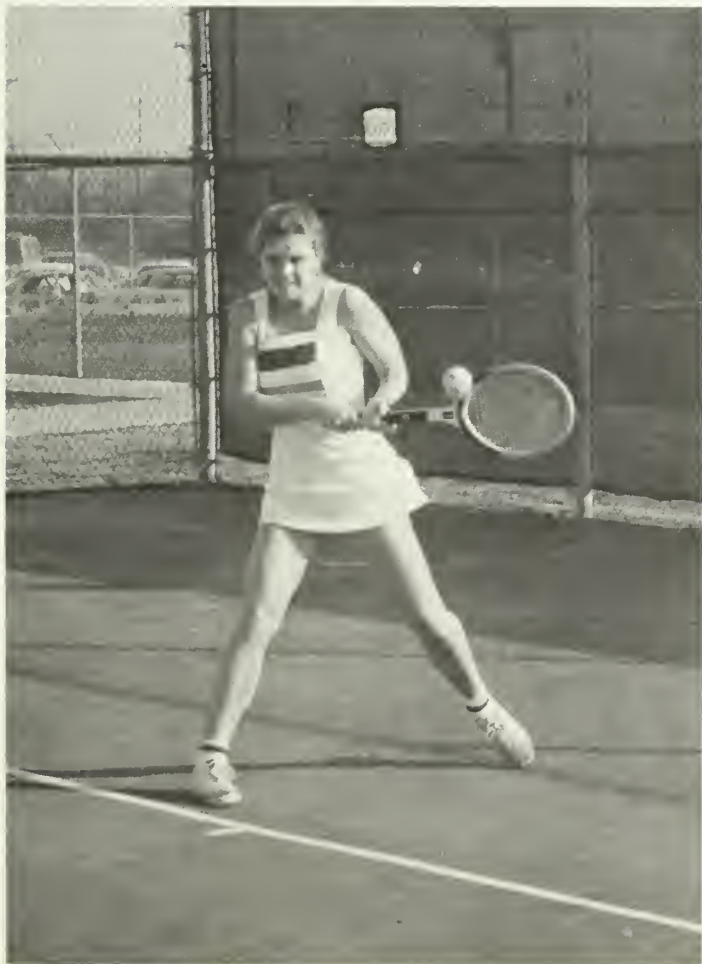

Tennis Tommies Optimistic for 1981

After finishing third in 1980 in the state conference, head coach Marcia Gibson was optimistic about the Tommies chances for 1981. Gibson, in her first year as head coach, will have two seniors to lead the way in J. J. Bullington and Cindy Richardson. Karen Crumpton, a transfer, played the No. 1 spot while freshman Vanessa Pridgen played No. 2 and transfer Paula Halko played No. 3. The Tommies also had more depth in 1981 than in previous years.

ASU Rifle Team Now Part of NCAA

The ASU rifle team is now officially recognized by the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and finished the season with a 20-7 record.

ASU's team hosted the Southland Conference tourney and won first place, defeating all other teams. The team also finished 4th in the NCAA sectional, 4th out of 80 teams in the Kemper College open and 3rd out of 28 teams in the U. of Missouri-Rolla Open.

Young Golfers Face Rebuilding Season

ASU's golfing Indians played the 1981 season with two returning lettermen—sophomores Jeff Melton and Chuck Gschwend. Of the 13 golfers out for the team, all were freshmen and sophomores. Last year's team won only one dual match, but Coach Abel was optimistic for this year's team.

Young Baseball Indians Have Disastrous 1980 Season

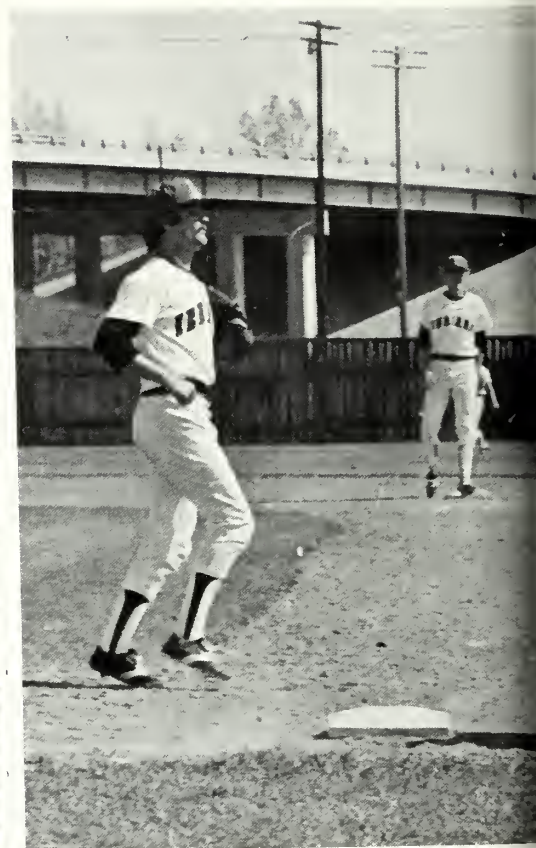

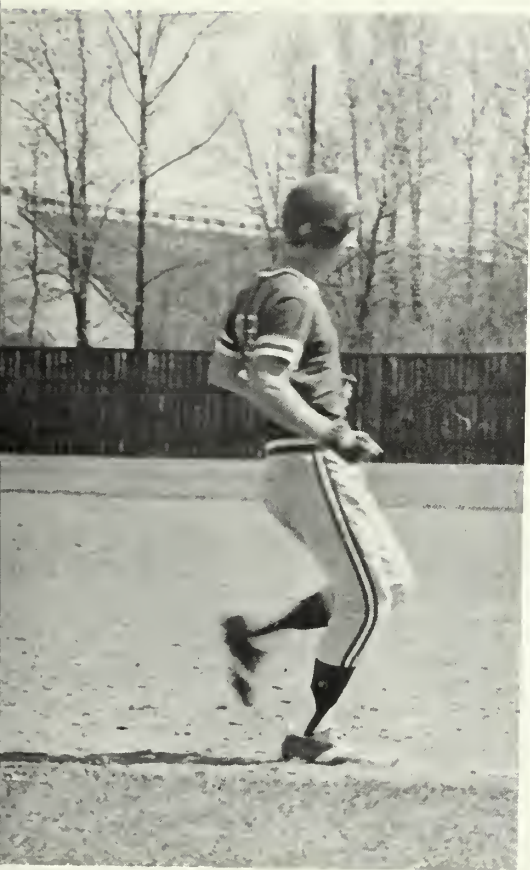

Even though ASU's young baseball Indians had a lack-luster season, there was one bright spot. Rick Poe, who set ASU and Southland Conference hitting records in 1979, kept up his hitting ways and reset them both.

Poe was selected by the New York Mets in a summer pro draft and assigned to Little Falls (N.Y.) of the Class A New York-Pennsylvania League.

Poe, who signed with the Mets with one year of collegiate eligibility remaining, became ASU's and SLC's all-time hitter with a .425 average. He ranked 26th in that department nationally and used league-leading figures in slugging and two-baggers to earn All-SLC recognition.

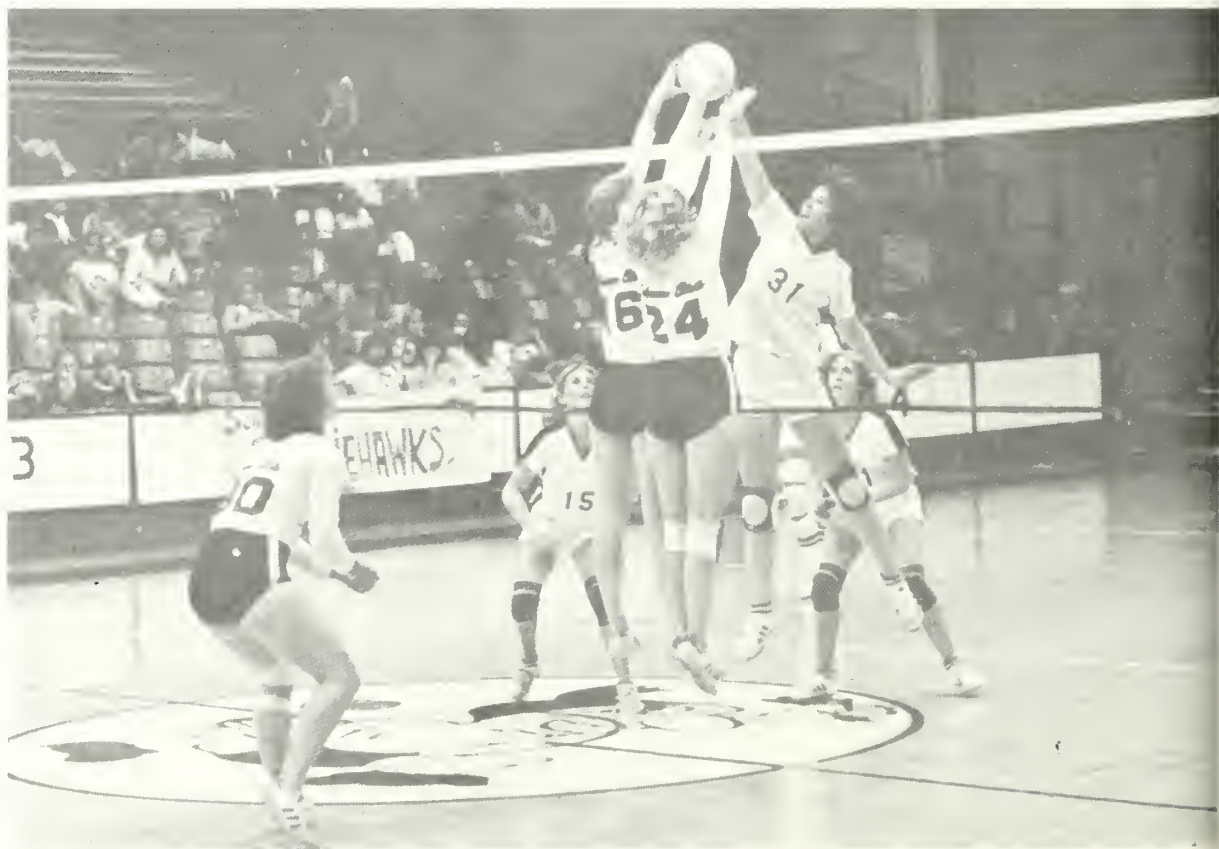

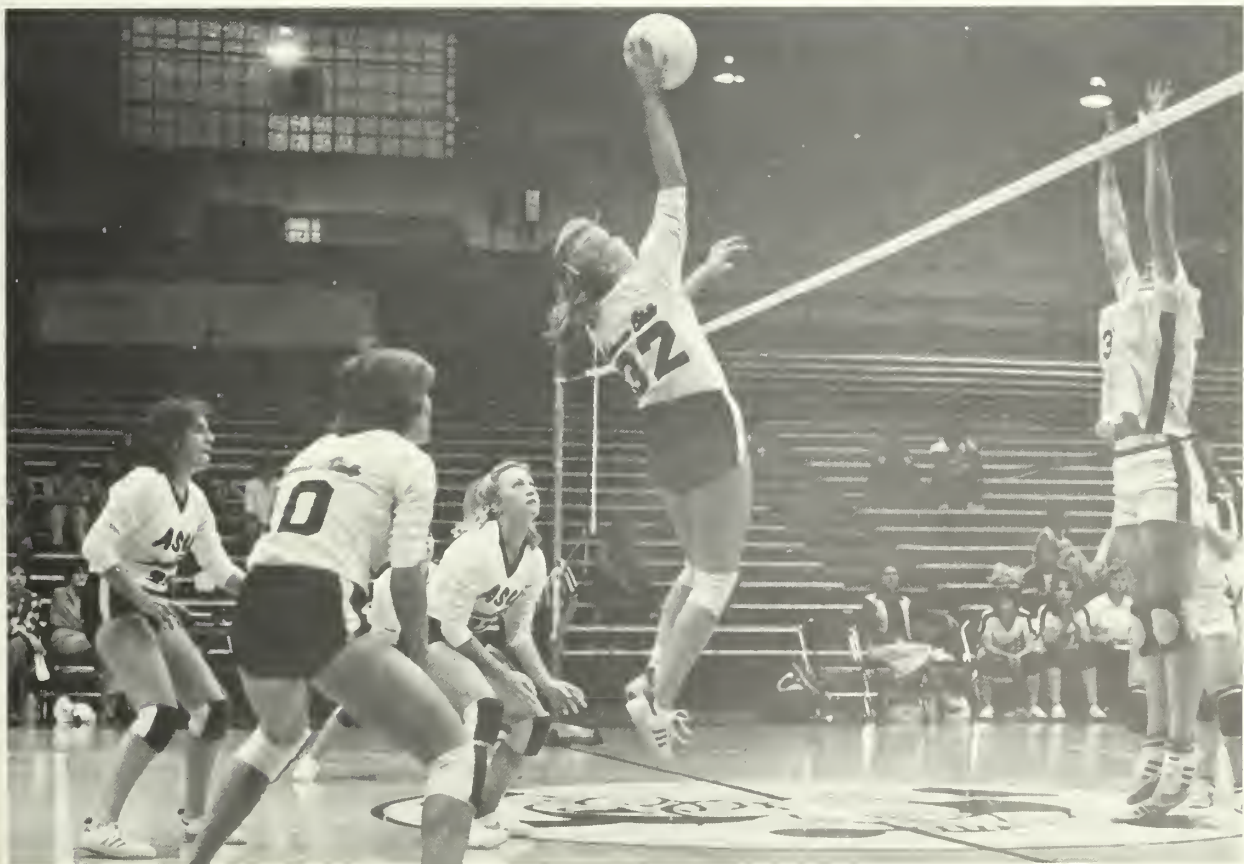

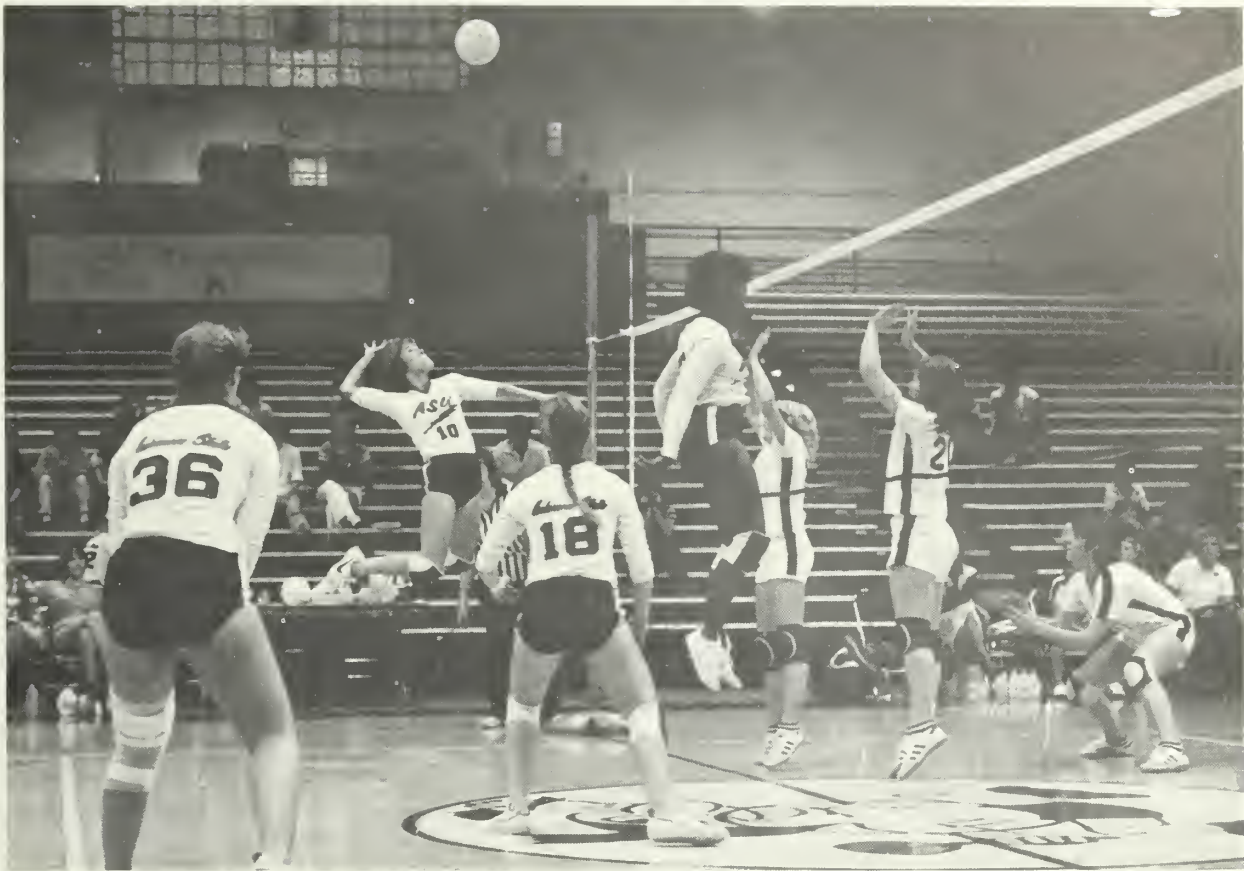

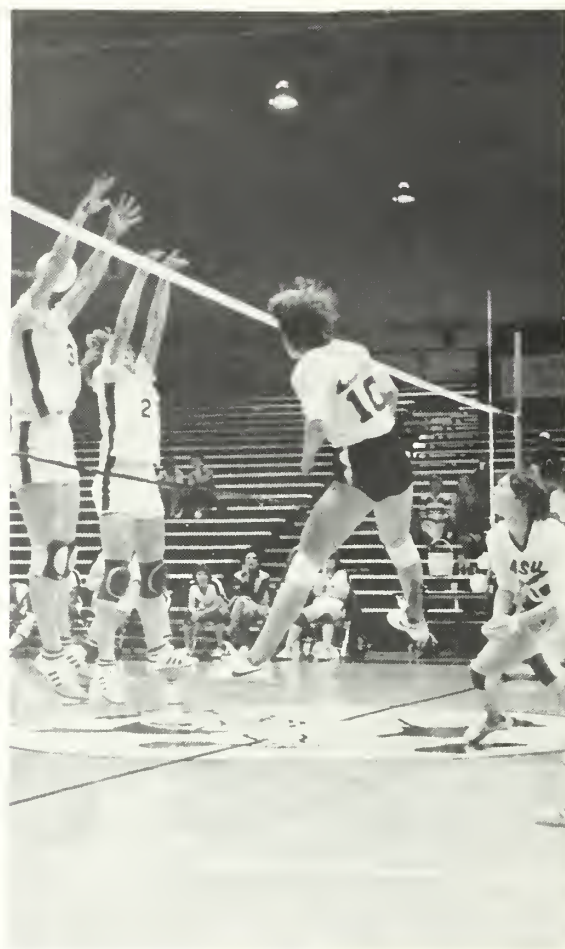

Tommies Win 5th Consecutive Title

The volleyball Tomahawks extended their conference winning streak to 86 during the 1980 season and finished with an overall record of 33-5. The Tommies won the Arkansas Women's Intercollegiate Sports Association championship for the fifth consecutive year. The Tommies won two and lost three in the regional tourney. Cheryl Buckmeier and Debbie Stepp were named to the All-Conference team and once again, Coach Kay Woodiel was named Coach of the Year.

ASU's fencing teams finished their first season in second place among the three SLC schools which fielded teams. University of Texas-Arlington won the conference title. ASU's women's team finished with a 6-4 mark after splitting with UTA 3-6, 6-3 and edging Lamar 5-4. The men's team finished at 4-6 by beating Lamar 5-4 but losing to UTA 7-2 and 6-3.

Indians win opener, trip up UT-Martin

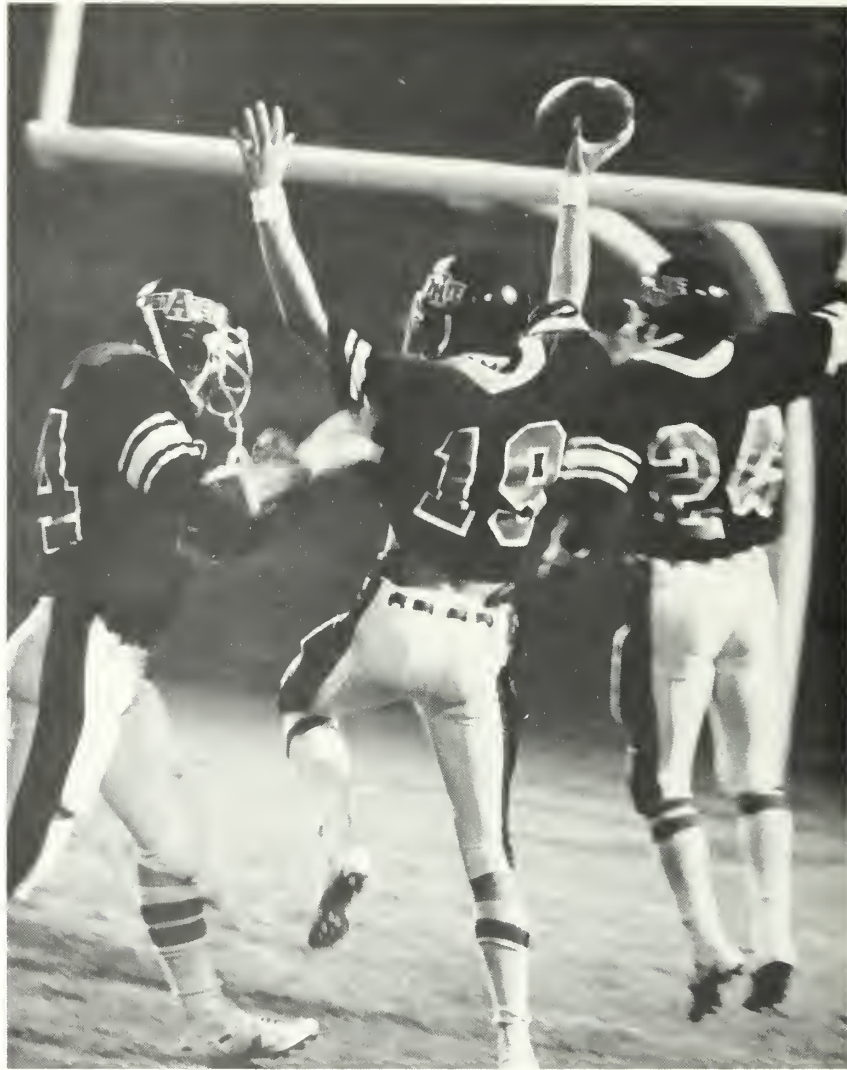

The Arkansas State Indians sported a new look for the 1980 football campaign, closing in the south side of Indian Stadium with their new, three-story multipurpose complex, successfully kicking off the year of the "Indian Uprising."

With only three seniors and 11 juniors dressed in new black jerseys, the Tribe answered some pre-season questions with a 29-9 win over the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Russ Henderson and Tim Langford emerged as quarterbacks, with Henderson rushing for 44 yards, running for one touchdown and passing to Lee Charles Wright for another, and Langford dashing across the goal line from four yards away for a third score.

Defensively, Clewon Johnson set an ASU record by blocking three Pacer punts, one of which set up a Jimmy Hatfield field goal in the first period.

Bruce Gartman emerged as the punter, averaging 41.1 yards on eight kicks.

Kansas State, NE Louisiana defeat Indians

All of the answers that seemed correct against UT-Martin were wrong against Northeast Louisiana, as the Indians from the deep South put away the Indians from Crowley's Ridge, 35-12.

Erven Beasley proved to be a pleasant surprise to ASU coaches, chalking up 170 rushing after two contests, including a 68-yard dash for a touchdown.

The Tribe was even less successful against the Kansas State Wildcats, losing four turnovers and the game, 31-7.

Beasley rushed for 99 yards in 17 carries for ASU and Henderson rushed for two yards for the only Indian touchdown.

Cajuns drop A-State in SLC opener

The Tribe visited Memphis State to tangle with the Tigers, and the Indians had the upper hand for three quarters, clinging to a 3-0 lead.

The bottom then fell out, as ASU coughed up the ball three times in the fourth period alone, six overall, as MSU roared back for a 24-3 triumph.

Mark Stadler accounted for the only ASU points, booting a 41-yard field goal with 4:07 left in the first period.

ASU opened its Southland Conference schedule against the Ragin' Cajuns of Southwestern Louisiana, but the opener was not a happy one for the Indians, choking down a 3-0 defeat.

The only points of the contest came on a 35-yard field goal by Larry Russell with 10:22 left in the first period.

Tim Allison accounted for two of five USL turnovers, picking off two Cajun passes, and USL tried to help the Tribe with 111 yards in penalties.

McNeese spoils ASU's Homecoming

Southern Mississippi was next in line for Arkansas State, but the Golden Eagles, then undefeated through six games, were too much for the Tribe shutting out ASU, 35-0 and stretching the Indians' scoreless slump to 11 quarters.

With the victory, USM jumped into the Associated Press' Top 20 for the first time in its history.

The Indians returned to the friendly confines of Indian Stadium after a disastrous four-game road trip for Homecoming festivities, with SLC foe McNeese State serving as the visitors.

The Cowboys were not very cordial, however, spoiling ASU's special night, 36-28.

ASU's offense woke up after five games, chalking up 28 first half points and 328 yards in total offense.

Langford was the key to the explosion, dashing three yards for one TD and lobbing an 80-yard pass to tight end Jerry Mack for another.

Allison intercepted an LTU pass and raced 38 yards for a third score and Beasley raced 61 yards untouched for the fourth touchdown.

Despite the good first half, the Cowboys trudged 80 and 71 yards in the first two possessions of the second half to pull out the victory.

La. Tech, Lamar win on big days

Another special event for Arkansas State, Band Night, also went down the tubes, thanks to Louisiana Tech's 28-0 whitewashing.

The ASU offense went sour once again, gaining only three first downs and 82 total yards. However, Bruce Gartman set school and conference marks for punting yards, and his 46.2-yard average for the night helped keep the score down. Also, the Tribe picked off four LTU passes to halt Bulldog drives.

The Lamar Cardinals continued the Indians' woes, but just barely, as the Cards got by the Tribe, 23-22.

ASU did all it could to win the contest – recovering four fumbles, intercepting a pass, blocking a field goal and a punt, and forcing Lamar into 90 yards in penalties – but LU still came out on top on Homecoming night for the Cardinals.

Rick Spivey spearheaded ASU's offense, passing for 108 yards and accounting for two touchdowns.

Tribe ends at 2-9 after 14-9 win

Arkansas State's final SLC contest, against Texas-Arlington, also wound up on the bitter side, as the Mavericks whipped the Indians, 36-14.

UTA's wishbone offense controlled play all day, constructing five drives of 52 yards or more and grounding out 306 yards rushing.

The only two scores for ASU came on UTA mistakes, and the loss finalized the Indians' conference record at 0-5.

The Tribe's final contest for 1980 had a better outcome, with the victims being the Governors of Austin Peay State, 14-9.

With the win, a nine game losing string ended, but ASU still experienced its worst back-to-back seasons in its history, going 4-7 in 1979.

Braves win to complete 1980 season

The junior varsity Braves battled through a 1-2 season for 1980, losing to Mississippi, 21-0, and Memphis State, 42-3, before upsetting Missouri at Indian Stadium, 24-23.

Russ Henderson anchored the Braves' offense and kickers Mark Stadler and John Unger came through with big field goals. Gill Stegall paced the receivers, running at will through the Missouri secondary for five catches and 221 yards, good for two touchdowns.

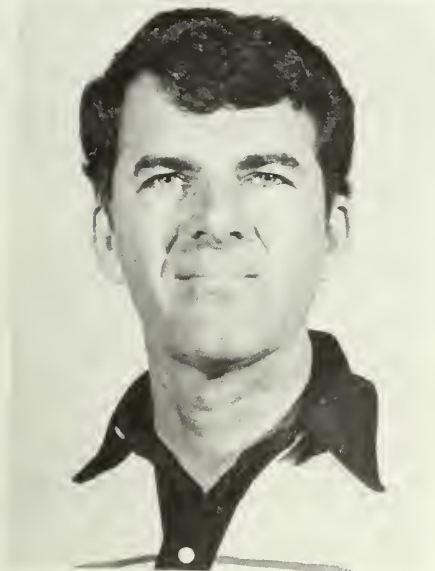

Missouri helped the Braves out with four turnovers and 110 yards in penalties.

Tommies Enjoy Profitable Year

The basketball Tomahawks kept their winning tradition in the Arkansas Women's Intercollegiate Sports Association, supporting a 19-12 record overall and an impressive 15-5 mark in AWISA play.

The Tommies also advanced to the semifinals of the AWISA State Tourney before being upended by Henderson State.

Freshman Gina DiCicco led the squad in scoring, averaging 10.9 points per game. Linda Holloway was also looked upon as a scoring leader, averaging 10.4 points per contest.

Holloway, Martha Higgins, and Mary Graddy were tops in rebounding as all topped five boards per game.

Indian Uprising Tough For Foes At Fieldhouse

The Arkansas State basketball Indians had an up-and-down season in 1980-81, compiling a 12-15 overall mark and a 2-8 ledger in Southland Conference action. The Tribe also participated in the first SLC Post-Season Classic, falling in the first round to Southwestern Louisiana.

ASU once owned an 11-5 record and a six-game winning streak, but the Indians collapsed under the weight of three last-minute, two-point, conference losses, including a pair of 66-64 losses to Texas-Arlington.

Lamar captured the SLC crown once again, marching to a 22-4 overall mark and an 8-2 league slate. UTA and Louisiana Tech were right on the Cards' heels with 7-3 records in SLC play.

Myles, Jefferson Are Keys To Success

Anthony Myles of Durham, North Carolina, and Jerome Jefferson of Memphis were the only two seniors on the Indians' roster, and their efforts on the court exemplified their leadership as seniors.

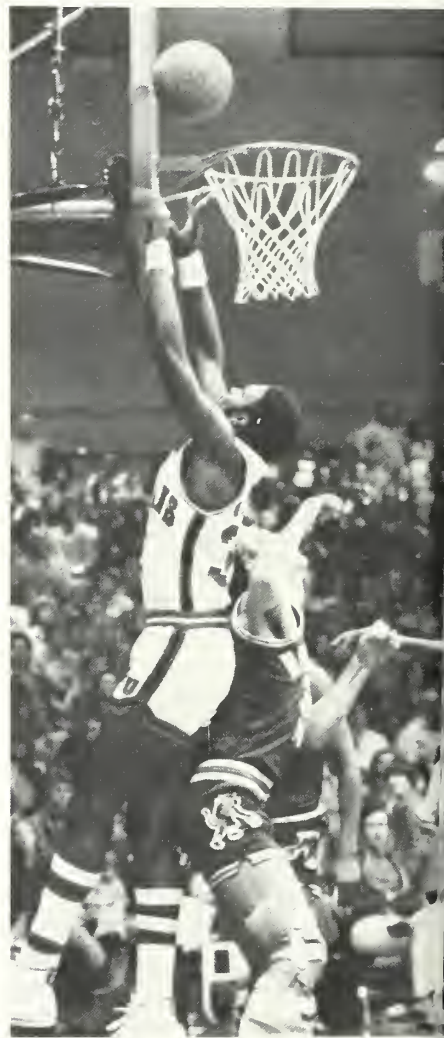

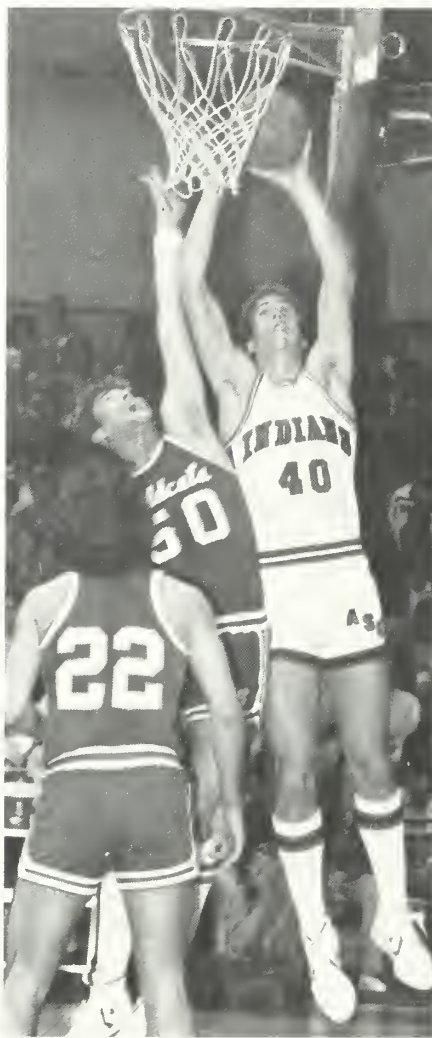

Myles became only the 12th player in ASU roundball history to surpass the 1,000-point barrier, mainly with his power moves inside the lane.

Jefferson has mastered the bank shot while attending ASU, and along with his ball handling skills and smart defense, has become a key to the success of the Indians.

WHO'S WHO

Fifty of us were selected as Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges for 1980-81. Selection was based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

More than 1,200 students were selected this year from institutions of higher education in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign countries. Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

ASU students who were selected were honored at a Who's Who Recognition Night Dec. 4. The students and their parents were honored by the deans of their respective colleges and departments and presented their certificates in the Ballroom of the Reng Center. A reception followed.

Those selected appear in this section in alphabetical order with their hometowns and majors listed, as well as some of the organizations in which each participated during their years at Arkansas State University.

GO GREEK

Arkansas State University's Panhellenic focused in on Greek life as a whole during this year's rush. Go Greek Week, the theme, gave students a chance to view all the fraternities and sororities. This fall girl's rush was also made formal, requiring the girls to attend all the information parties. The guy's rush continued to be informal with party after party.

Kappa Delta Walk-a-thon

Nearly 85 people walked with the KD's in their 10-mile walk-a-thon for the John T. Gray Memorial school.

Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity walked five miles in their first walk-a-thon for Crowley's Ridge Development Council Headstart Program.

Alpha Phi Alpha Walk-a-thon

TKE Fingerbowl

Teke's Upset Pikes 52-0

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity competed against the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity in the Fingerbowl for their philanthropy, St. Jude's Children's Hospital. The Tekes also went on to compete in the second annual National Intramural Football championship after defeating the Fourth Flush, an Independent team.

Lambda Chi Alpha Works For Cerebral Palsy

The Lambda Chi's sponsored a car bash and had a smashing time raising funds for United Cerebral Palsy. They also participated in the Tele-a-thon for the philanthropy.

Lambda Chi Alpha Miss Greek Pledge

Miss Greek Pledge Contest, sponsored by the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, features pledges representing each fraternity and sorority. Dale McGilliard (right) a Lambda Chi alumni, served as Master of Ceremonies. Various talented acts such as Becky Chaney's ballet dance (below) and Sheri Colbert's dramatic act (bottom right) were performed.

AKA Hosts Talent Show

The Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority sponsored a talent show in December 1980. The proceeds were given to Carter's Temple C.M.E. Church. First place winner was Saul Peters, second place went to Michael Cox, Silas Watson, and Janice Patrick, and third place went to Shelia Booker.

The Zeta Follies gave students a chance to show their talents. Phi Mu won first place in the Greek division, Lambda Chi Alpha placed second and Chi Omega received third. In the Independent division a bluegrass band won first place and a skit by a group of drama students came in second.

Greeks Like To Socialize At . . .

Drop-ins, Parties

Some of us enjoy socializing at activities that benefit philanthropies and others just enjoy partying! Greeks enjoy drop-ins which let them mingle and meet new people. Themes such as Cowboy, Sock Hop, New Wave, and Casino parties give students a chance to let go and have fun. Greeks host dances to give everyone a piece of the action!

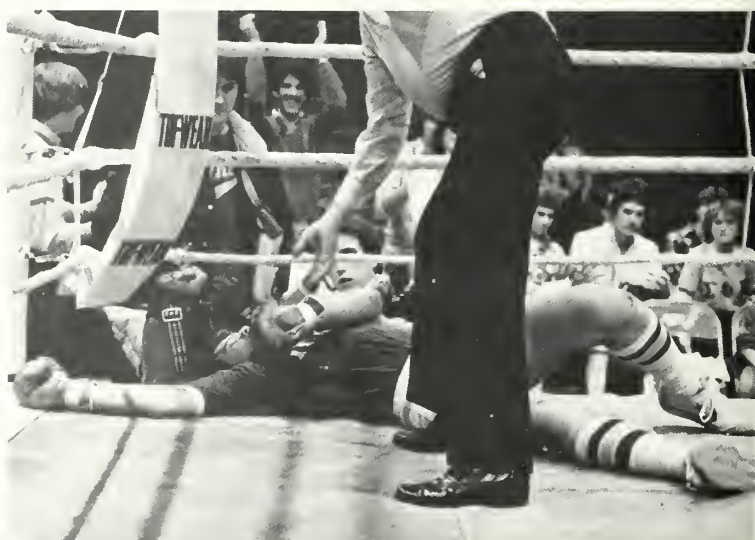

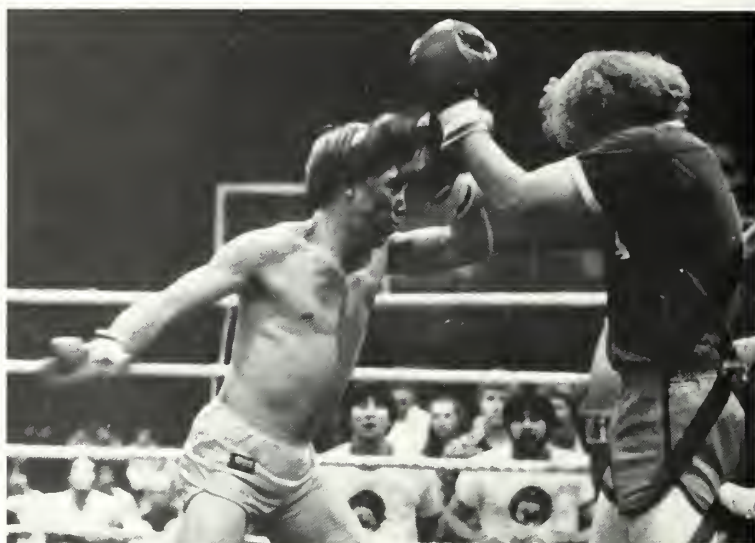

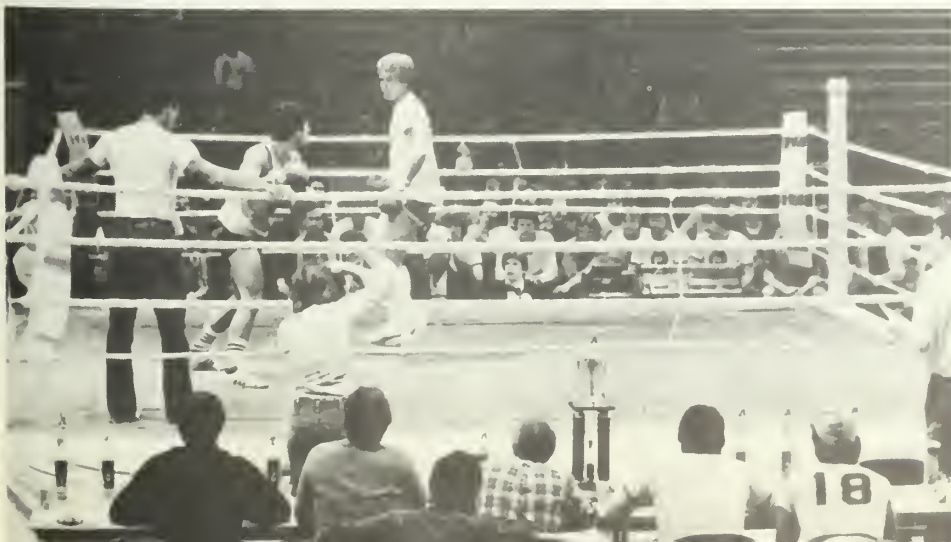

And Dances

Fite Nite: Black Eyes, Bloody Noses

Seven of us emerged victorious in the Annual Sig Ep Fite Nite. Bill Pyland, Flyweight; Ricky Rice, Lightweight; Desso Ferrara, Welterweight; Dennis French and Keith Davis share honors, Middleweight; Glen Eaton, Heavyweight; and Steve Olliges, Super-heavyweight. For those of us not so enthusiastic about watching pain there was a martial arts demonstration, Miss Knockout contest, and wrestling.

Sigma Pi Sponsors

First Gumball Rally

Pike Little Olympics

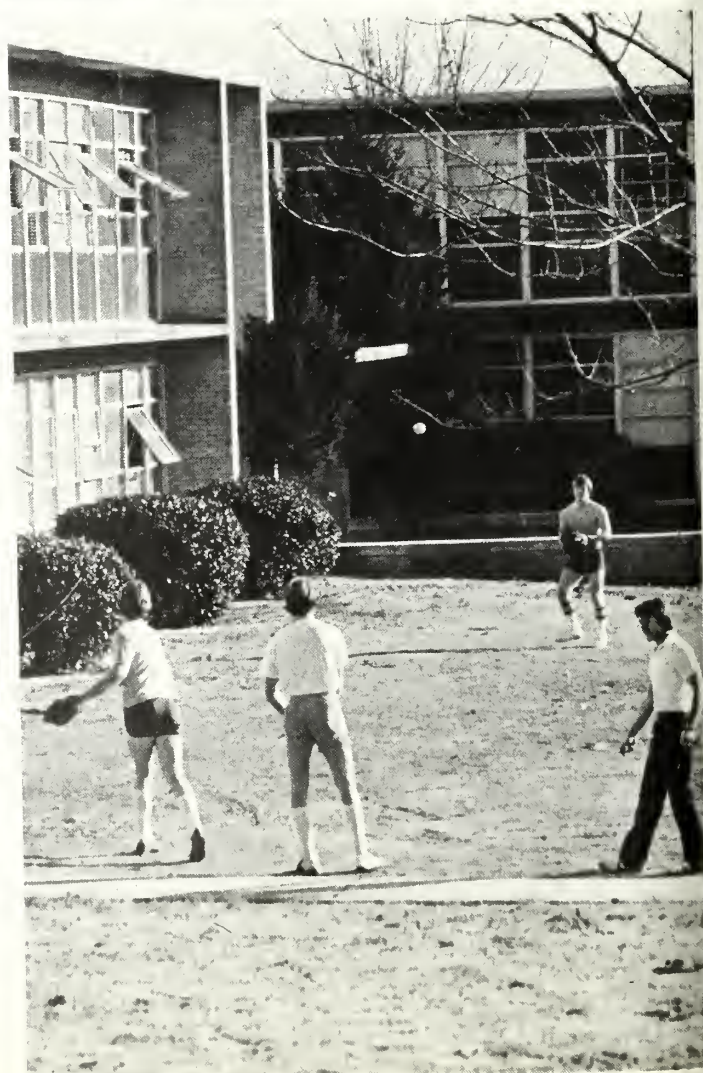

Gator With The Pikes

Girls from each sorority participated in wheel barrow races, limbo contests, tug-of-war and snake chains. They wallowed in the mud like alligators but dreaded the huge pit. Alpha Omicron Pi sorority was the overall winner.

Another One Bites The Dust

Some of us graduate and this year I will too. Being editor has been a real experience. I had some great people working for me. I also had some working against me. To David and Gail, I sincerely regret that they couldn't be back for the spring semester. They really worked hard. A couple of others did a fair job, maybe next time they'll have more time. George pulled us out of a couple of tough spots by being on hand even though he wasn't officially on the photography staff until the spring. The spring photography staff worked well once they got organized. As for Edwin, well all I can say is: I'm sorry you had so many different jobs to do.

Congratulations go to this year's volunteer staff workers. You worked harder and for a longer period of time this fall than any staff in the past three years. I have only one question. Where were you in the spring!

Although the editorial staff was inexperienced they had a lot of get up and go. By the spring most of it had got up and gone. Even though there were times when I wondered if the deadline would be met, they always came through with more than enough pages. Fonda worked at making the Student Life section representative of everyone. With so many new activities, Angela had a hard time deciding what to use in the Greek section. To those Greek groups that had their composites mailed directly to the yearbook office, thanks. It made the job much easier this time. Leah did a good job of organizing the organizations and helping out wherever she could. Kent worked real hard on the football pages. Vivian was our class editor, and even though she wasn't paid she never complained.

Thanks to Jeb Beavers, the SID office, and the Herald for the photographs they lent us. For my friends who listened to me rant and rave, and especially those who didn't get mad when I bitched at them, you were really great.

To Tom and Alice, my very special thanks. You kept me on an even keel and did all the yelling I wanted to do but couldn't. To next year's editor my sympathies and good luck.

I loved doing the 1981 Indian but I can sincerely say I wouldn't do it again.

Karen Manning, editor
